

The board game layout includes the following elements:

- Central Area: A large circular area with a grid of numbers (0-9) and symbols (baseball, house, suitcase, etc.). It contains a central box with various game pieces and actions, including a baseball, a house, a suitcase, and a person running.
- Base Path: A diamond-shaped path connecting the bases 1B, 2B, 3B, and HP. The path is marked with numbers 1 through 9.
- Base Labels: The bases are labeled 1B, 2B, 3B, and HP.
- Game Pieces: Various game pieces are scattered across the board, including a baseball, a house, a suitcase, and a person running.
- Grid: A large grid of green dots surrounds the central area, with numbers 0-9 and symbols (baseball, house, suitcase, etc.) placed at various points.